

Supporting Nurses Back into Practice

LinkedIn

training

The traditional methods of managing the job search and moving ahead in an organization are becoming less applicable to today's society. The most successful workers are those who understand how to leverage their skills and qualifications through effective networking. This free online workshop, will explore various networking tools, with a focus on LinkedIn's capacity to boost your professional visibility.

The workshop will be facilitated by:

Mehrzaad "Nicholas" Ghadiri

Expert Human Resources Professional and eLearning Specialist
